Verizon announces pricing terms of its tender offers / consent solicitations for 31 series of Verizon and certain of its subsidiaries’ notes

NEW YORK – Verizon Communications Inc. (“Verizon”) (NYSE, NASDAQ: VZ) today announced the pricing terms of its previously announced 31 separate offers, for its own account and on behalf of certain of its wholly-owned subsidiaries, to purchase for cash (the “Tender Offers”) up to the Waterfall Cap (as defined below) the outstanding series of notes listed below (collectively, the “Notes”), on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Statement dated November 15, 2017 (the “Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Statement” and, together with the accompanying letter of transmittal, the “Offer Documents”), such terms as amended by Verizon’s press release relating to the Tender Offers dated November 30, 2017 (the “Early Results Press Release”).

Withdrawal rights for each Tender Offer expired at 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on November 29, 2017. The Extended Early Participation Date (as defined in the Early Results Press Release) is 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on December 13, 2017, at which time the Tender Offers will also expire, unless the expiration date is extended or earlier terminated by Verizon.

The table below indicates, among other things, the aggregate principal amount of Notes validly tendered in each Tender Offer at or prior to the Original Early Participation Date (as defined in the Early Results Press Release) and the Offer Yield (as defined below) and Total Consideration (as defined in the Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Statement) for each $1,000 principal amount of each series of Notes validly tendered at or prior to the Extended Early Participation Date, as calculated at 11:00 a.m. (New York City time) today, November 30, 2017 (the “Price Determination Date”) in accordance with the terms of the Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Statement:

Verizon’s obligation to accept Notes (and, with respect to the Subsidiary Notes, the related consents) tendered in the Tender Offers and Consent Solicitations is subject to the terms and conditions described in the Offer Documents, including (i) the Acceptance Priority Procedures (as described in the Launch Press Release) and (ii) a $1.0 billion cap (the “Waterfall Cap”) on the total cash Verizon pays to purchase Notes validly tendered under the Tender Offers and Consent Solicitations (excluding the applicable Accrued Coupon Payment (as defined in the Launch Press Release)). Holders of Notes who validly tender their Notes at or prior to the Extended Early Participation Date and whose Notes are accepted by Verizon will be eligible to receive the Total Consideration, which includes the Early Participation Payment.

(1) See Annex A of the Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Statement for a list of original issuer names, as applicable.

(2) The Total Consideration for each series of Notes will be based on the fixed spread for the applicable series of Notes plus the yield of the specified Reference U.S. Treasury Security for that series as of the Price Determination Date. See “Description of the Tender Offers and Consent Solicitations—Determination of Consideration” in the Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Statement. The Total Consideration does not include the applicable Accrued Coupon Payment (as defined in the Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Statement), which will be payable in cash in addition to the applicable Total Consideration. There is no separate consent payment for the Consent Solicitations.

(3) The “Offer Yield” is equal to the sum of (a) the yield, as calculated by the lead dealer managers, that equates to the bid side price of the Reference U.S. Treasury Security specified in the table above for each series of Notes appearing at 11:00 a.m. (New York City time), today, November 30, 2017 on the Bloomberg Reference Page specified in the table above, subject to the Consent Solicitations. See “The Proposed Amendments” in the Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Statement, dated November 15, 2017 (the “Launch Press Release”), for such series of Notes, plus (b) the Fixed Spread specified in the table above for such series of Notes.

(4) Payable per each $1,000 principal amount of each specified series of Notes validly tendered at or prior to the Extended Early Participation Date and accepted for purchase.

* Denotes a series of Notes, a portion of which is held in physical certificates and is not held through The Depository Trust Company.

† Denotes a series of Subsidiary Notes (as defined in the Launch Press Release) subject to the Consent Solicitations. See “The Proposed Amendments” in the Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Statement.
The Total Consideration that will be paid on the Settlement Date (as defined in the Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Statement) for each series of Notes accepted for purchase does not include the applicable Accrued Coupon Payment, which will be paid, in cash, in addition to the applicable Total Consideration.
