

UK BCR PROCESSOR SUMMARY

The Verizon Business Group ("Verizon") has approved binding corporate rules for Processors ("EU BCR-P"), which are an internationally recognized standard providing adequate protection of personal data in multinational companies. The EU BCR-P were reviewed and approved by data protection authorities across Europe. A copy of Verizon's EU BCR-P is available at <https://www.verizon.com/about/privacy/binding-corporate-rules>

Verizon has entered into the UK BCR Addendum to the approved EU BCR-P. The UK BCR Addendum is a formal legal mechanism which extends the scope of the EU BCR-P to include transfers of personal data from the UK. Together, the EU BCR-P, the UK BCR-P Addendum and this UK BCR-P Summary form Verizon's UK BCR ("UK BCR-P"). Further information about the UK BCR addendum process is available on the UK Information Commissioner's Office ("ICO") website at <https://ico.org.uk/for-organisations/uk-gdpr-guidance-and-resources/international-transfers/guide-to-binding-corporate-rules/a-uk-bcr-addendum/>

The purpose of this UK BCR summary is to provide information to: (i) individuals whose personal data is transferred under the UK BCR-P so that they know how their information is processed, what rights they have under the UK BCR-P and how to enforce them, and (ii) Third Party Exporters.

The rights of individuals whose personal data is transferred under the UK BCR, including third party beneficiary rights, and the means to exercise those rights	The rights of individuals whose personal data is transferred under Verizon's BCR (including the UK BCR) and how to exercise those rights are as described in the following sections of the EU BCR-P: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Rule 4 : Honouring Individuals' Rights and Appendix 1: Individuals' Rights Procedure</li> <li>• Section C: Third Party Beneficiary Rights</li> </ul>
Responsibility towards the controller	As set out in Part I: Background and actions, Section "How does data protection law affect Verizon internationally?" of the EU BCR-P, when Verizon acts as a processor, Verizon's UK customers retain the responsibility to comply with UK data protection law. In practical terms, this means that those acting as controllers (i.e. customers) must pass certain data protection obligations onto any processor which processes customer personal information outside the UK on behalf of those controllers in order to overcome the legal restrictions on international data transfers. If Verizon fails to comply with the data protection obligations imposed on it by its customers, Verizon's customers may be in breach of UK data protection law and Verizon may face a claim for breach of contract which may result in the payment of compensation or other judicial remedies. In such cases, if a customer demonstrates that it has suffered damage, and that it is likely that the damage occurred because of a breach of this UK BCR-P, the obligation will be for Verizon UK Limited to show that the Group Member outside the UK (or a third party sub-processor established outside the UK) is not responsible for the breach, or that no such breach took place. In addition, a customer that has entered into a data processing agreement with Verizon that incorporates this UK BCR-P may enforce this Policy in the courts of England and Wales, where permitted by law and subject to the terms of the data processing agreement, against (i) any Group Member processing customer personal information on behalf of that customer in respect of a breach of the BCR-P caused by that Group Member; and (ii) the Group Member which exported customer personal information to the Group Member in (i), so long as that Group Member exporting customer personal information is located in the UK; or (iii) in those cases where it is not possible to bring a claim against a Group Member in the UK, claims may be made against Verizon UK Limited.

How to complain to Verizon BCR Members	Details of how to complain to Verizon about the BCRs (including the UK BCR) is as set out in Appendix 5: EU Complaint Handling Procedure of the EU BCR-P. As indicated in Appendix 5 of the EU BCRs and specifically in a UK context, all complaints made under the UK BCR-P can be brought: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• in writing to Verizon's Senior Director, International Privacy at emeadataprotection@verizon.com, or</li> <li>• by writing to Senior Director, International Privacy, Verizon, Legal Department, Reading International Business Park, Basingstoke Road, Reading, RG2 6DA.</li> </ul> While data subjects are encouraged to use the above points of contact, this is not mandatory. Where a complaint arises under this BCR-P, the Group Member will communicate the details of the complaint to the customer promptly and will act strictly in accordance with the terms of the contract between the customer and Verizon if the customer requires Verizon to deal with the complaint. In circumstances where a customer has disappeared, no longer exists or has become insolvent, individuals whose personal information is processed and transferred between Group Members on behalf of that customer under this BCR-P have the right to complain to Verizon and Verizon will deal with such complaints in accordance with the Complaint Handling Procedure. Individuals also have the right to complain to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• the UK Information Commissioner; and/or</li> <li>• the courts of the UK.</li> </ul> These rights will apply whether or not they have first made a complaint to Verizon.
