Achieved First Positive 1Q Postpaid Phone Net Additions Since 2013

Company raises guidance for:

Adjusted EPS[1] & total retail postpaid phone net additions

"Our first-quarter 2026 results show that our turnaround is not only progressing, it is gaining momentum. We are beginning to reclaim our market leadership by putting the customer at the center of everything we do, reducing friction to increase loyalty and create genuine value. This disciplined approach is already delivering healthier economics, lower churn, and the first positive first-quarter postpaid phone net adds we've seen in over a decade."
