Verizon announces expiration and final results of its tender offers for 8 series of notes

NEW YORK – Verizon Communications Inc. (“Verizon”) (NYSE: VZ) (NASDAQ: VZ) today announced the expiration and final results of its previously announced 8 separate offers to purchase for cash up to an aggregate purchase price equal to the Waterfall Cap (as defined below) of the outstanding series of notes listed in the table below (collectively, the “Notes”). We refer to each offer to purchase a series of Notes for cash as an “Offer” and all of the offers to purchase Notes, collectively, as the “Offers.” The Offers were made on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Offer to Purchase dated September 5, 2018 (the “Offer to Purchase”).

The Offers expired at 11:59 p.m. (Eastern time) on October 2, 2018 (the “Expiration Date”). All conditions to the Offers were timely satisfied or waived by Verizon.

As previously announced, Verizon settled early all Notes validly tendered at or prior to 5:00 p.m. (Eastern time) on September 18, 2018 (the “Early Participation Date”) and accepted for purchase such Notes on September 21, 2018. Since the aggregate purchase price (excluding the applicable Accrued Coupon Payments) of the (i) Notes validly tendered at or prior to the Early Participation Date and previously accepted for purchase and (ii) Notes validly tendered after the Early Participation Date and at or prior to the Expiration Date does not exceed $2.5 billion (the “Waterfall Cap”), Verizon has accepted for purchase all Notes that were validly tendered after the Early Participation Date and at or prior to the Expiration Date. Holders of such Notes will receive on the Final Settlement Date (as defined below) the applicable Tender Consideration (as defined in the Launch Press Release), which is equal to the applicable Total Consideration (as defined in the Launch Press Release) minus the Early Participation Payment (as defined in the Launch Press Release).

The “Final Settlement Date” will be October 4, 2018, the second business day after the Expiration Date.

The table below indicates, the aggregate principal amount of Notes validly tendered after the Early Participation Date and at or prior to the Expiration Date and accepted in each Offer:
