

Verizon Wireless

Facts At-a-Glance

- Headquartered in Basking Ridge, N.J., Verizon Wireless is a leader in wireless voice and data services. The company:
- Owns and operates the nation's largest and most reliable 4G LTE network. Launched in December 2010, the Verizon Wireless 4G LTE network is available in 500 markets to more than 95 percent of the U.S. population and covers nearly 301 million people, including those in areas served by our LTE in Rural America partners.
- Offers global voice and data services in more than 200 destinations around the world.

Total Retail Customers (end of 2Q 2013)	100.1 million retail connections, including 94.3 million retail postpaid connections
Employees (end of 2Q 2013)	73,400 nationwide
Annual Revenue 2012	$75.9 Billion
Company Operated Stores & Kiosks	More than 1,900
Digital Network Technology	Fourth generation (4G) Long Term Evolution (LTE) network, Code Division Multiple Access (CDMA)
Switching Centers	148
Headquarters	Basking Ridge, NJ
Area Headquarters	Northeast - Morristown, NJ South - Alpharetta, GA Midwest - Schaumburg, IL West - Irvine, CA

August 30, 2013