Lifeline Service in Pennsylvania is provided by Verizon Pennsylvania LLC, Verizon North LLC and Verizon Online LLC

Lifeline is a government assistance program supported by the Pennsylvania Public Utilities Commission and the Federal Communications Commission. Verizon offers the following Lifeline-supported services as an Eligible Telecommunications Carrier:

- Voice Lifeline - $11.75 monthly discount
- Voice Lifeline 135 - $9.25 monthly discount
- Broadband (internet) - $9.25 monthly discount

Only eligible consumers may enroll in the programs.

You may qualify for Lifeline Voice service if you can show proof that you participate in a certain government assistance program or your annual income is 100% or below the Federal Poverty Guideline. You may qualify for Lifeline 135 service if you can show proof that you participate in certain government assistance programs or your annual income is 135% or below the Federal Poverty Guideline. If you qualify based on income, you will be required to provide income verification. For a list of qualifying government assistance programs and income guidelines, please see your state’s application form from this same website.

You may qualify for Lifeline Broadband (internet) service if you can show proof that you participate in certain government assistance programs or your annual income is 135% or below the Federal Poverty Guideline. If you qualify based on income, you will be required to provide income verification.

In addition, the Lifeline program is limited to one discount per household consisting of wireline, wireless or broadband (internet). You are required to certify and agree that no other member of the household is receiving Lifeline service from Verizon or another provider.

Lifeline service is a non-transferrable benefit.

Consumers who willfully make false statements in order to obtain the benefit can be punished by fine or imprisonment, or may be barred from the program.

You must meet certain eligibility requirements in order to qualify for the Lifeline service. An application for Verizon Lifeline or Lifeline 135 service can be obtained at this same website, www.verizon.com/lifeline, or an application can be mailed by calling 1.800.VERIZON (1.800.837.4966).
