If it is found that the Lifeline customer actually exceeds the income limitation, the customer will be removed from the program and may be back billed with interest for previous discounts which the customer should not have received. | (T)
(N)
(N) |
| 8) | "Income" is defined as all revenues, from all household members, from whatever sources derived, whether taxable or non-taxable, including, but not limited to: wages, salaries, interest, dividends, spousal support and child support, grants, gifts, allowances, stipends, public assistance payments, social security and pensions, rental income, income from self-employment and cash payments from other sources, and all employment-related, non-cash income.

The income used to determine whether a household with a self-employed person is eligible to participate in the ULTS program shall include the net business income shown on Internal Revenue Service Form 1040, Schedule C, Line 29. If a net loss is shown on Line 29, then Line 29 shall not be included as part of the income used to determine whether a household with a self-employed person is eligible to participate in the ULTS programs. | (T) |

2. Special Conditions (Continued)

- i. Customers with California Lifeline must notify the Utility of a change in any condition which occurs that would cause the household to no longer qualify for California Lifeline or a second California Lifeline line. Upon receipt of notification, the Utility will change the service to regular tariffed rates for the service furnished. Service Charges will not apply to the change in service. (T)

The Utility has the right to verify the customer's eligibility. If the Utility discovers that conditions exist which cause the customer not to qualify for California Lifeline or a second California Lifeline line, the Utility will immediately convert California Lifeline or a second California Lifeline line to regular tariff rates and charges and notify the customer of the conversion to regular tariff rates and charges. If the customer cannot prove when he became ineligible, the Utility will bill the customer retroactive to the last certification date for the difference between California Lifeline rates and the regular tariff rates for the service furnished including Service Charges and deposits, if applicable. (T)

- j. Eligible customers are required to verify their eligibility annually. The Certifying Agent will mail verification forms to each customer with the service annually. If the customer fails to return the verification form to the Certifying Agent by the due date, the Certifying Agent will assume that the customer is no longer eligible. The customer's service rates will be converted to the regular tariffed rates for the type, class, and grade of service furnished. Non-recurring charges will not apply to the change in service. Deposit requirements will be applied in accordance with applicable tariffs. (T)
