SPECIAL CONDITIONS

1. GENERAL

a. As of October 11, 2007, Telephone Directories are provided by Idearc Media Corp., the official publisher of Verizon print directories. Additional local directories and directories outside the local calling area may be obtained by contacting Idearc. For rates, terms and conditions, call 1-800-888-8448, or visit www.directorystore.com. (C) (C)

b. Telephone directories containing alphabetical listings for the local and ZUM areas as set forth in Schedule CPUC No.'s A-28 and H-1 shall be provided upon customer request without charge.

c. Tariffs of the exchange served by a directory shall be applicable to the alphabetical listings appearing therein.

d. Public telephones will not be listed.

e. Under provision of Section 384 of the Penal Code, every telephone directory published and distributed to the general public after September 11, 1957, shall have the following notice:

WARNING

The Penal Code of the State of California provides that any person who shall willfully refuse to immediately relinquish a line when informed that such line is needed for an emergency call, and in fact such line is needed for an emergency call, to a fire department or police department or for medical aid or ambulance service, or any person who shall secure the use of the line by falsely stating that such line is needed for an emergency call, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. "Emergency" as used above means a situation in which property or human life is in jeopardy and the prompt summoning of aid is essential.

f. A trade name may be used as the name portion of either additional or primary listings. The Utility may require the customer to furnish evidence satisfactory to the Utility that he is authorized to use the Trade Name described in the listing furnished, and that the business is actually being conducted under that name.

If, upon request of the Utility, the customer for any reason does not furnish such evidence, the Utility may refuse to list the name or refuse to continue a listing of the name. Acceptance or refusal of the Utility to accept a listing is subject to review by the Public Utilities Commission of the State of California.

g. The customer assumes full responsibility concerning the right to use any name, address, or trade name in a directory listing acceptable to the company.

h. The customer assumes full responsibility in determining that any name, address or trade name listed will conform in all respects to all applicable law and all licensing requirements from state or any local licensing authority.

i. The customer agrees to indemnify and hold the Utility harmless from any claims, loss, damage or liability, which arises out of or results from the use by the customer of a listing containing a name, address or trade name or with respect to or related to g. and h. above.

j. Except as otherwise provided in this tariff schedule, the Utility does not undertake to determine the legal, contractual or any other right to the use of a name, address, or trade name. Nor does the Utility undertake to determine whether a customer is required to have a valid occupational or business license, permit or registration from the State of California or any local licensing authority in order to engage in the business listed.

k. Nonpublished and Nonlisted telephone numbers may be displayed to customers who subscribe to Calling Number Identification (CNID) Service. Nonpublished and Nonlisted customers may elect to utilize Complete or Selective Blocking (Schedule Cal. P.U.C. No. A-40), which will block display of the telephone number to the called party. 2. ALPHABETICAL

a. Listings in the alphabetical sections of the telephone-directories are intended solely for the purpose of identifying customers' telephone numbers as an aid to the use of telephone service.

(1) One listing will be provided without additional charge for each individual line, each private branch exchange, each telephone answering service, each call receiving service, each CentraNet® service, or each number in rotary sequence. (T) (T)

(2) The rate for foreign exchange service includes primary listings, without additional charge, in the directories servings the foreign and local exchanges.

(3) The rate for interexchange receiving service includes, without additional charge, primary listings in the directories of the originating and receiving exchanges.

(4) The rate for a radiotelephone utility's bonafide mobile radio customers using the telephone number of the Utility's base stations, or an individually assigned telephone number shall be that of an additional listing.

b. Rates for listings in other directories, additional listings and lines of information begin the day the listings are entered in the information records. When such listings are included in a directory, the charges will be discontinued only at the end of the publication period for that directory, and then only if notice is received on or before the closing date of the next directory; also, charges will be discontinued if the listed party vacates the customer's premises or subscribes to service of the same class furnished the customer, or if service to the customer or listed party is discontinued.

c. For liability and allowance for listing errors or omissions see Rule No. 26.

d. All applications for additional listings and lines of information shall be made by the customer or an authorized agent of the customer, except that reference to the service of another customer shall first be authorized by such other customer. Such authorization may be withdrawn effective at the end of any directory period provided such notice is received by the Utility on or before the closing date of the new directory.

e. Additional listings in connection with the customer's service must bear the same address and telephone number as the customer's primary listing with the following exceptions:

(1) No address is included in either of the types of reference listings under Rates A.3.(4) and A.3.(5) and no address or telephone number is included in cross reference listings, A.3.6. (T) (T)

(2) Additional listings in connection with service not located on the same premises as the primary service may show the address at which the service is located, except that the address may be omitted from the listing when the customer does not publicly conduct business at the address at which the service is furnished. The name portion of the listing shall include a reference to the name shown in the primary listing. (T) (T)

(3) Additional listings in connection with CentraNet® or inward dialing stations may show the address of either the pilot number or the location of the station, but will show the telephone number of that CentraNet® or inward dialing station.

(4) Additional listings in connection with foreign exchange service will not be permitted to show the address of an extension station provided only for answering purposes.

3. STREET ADDRESS TELEPHONE DIRECTORIES

a. Street address telephone directory service is the furnishing of a directory which lists, in accordance with the Utility's regular practices, customer's names and telephone number by street name (arranged alphabetically) and numerically thereunder by address.

Subsequent to a customer's listing appearing in a street address telephone directory, and upon the customer's request, the listing will be omitted from future issues. (See Tariff Schedule No. A-41, Service Connection, Move and Change Charges, Special Condition No. 14).

b. The issue of the directory furnished to establish this service will be the current issue on the date service is established.

c. Service will be furnished for a minimum period for six months.

d. The service furnished hereunder shall be subject to the availability of copies of the directory.

e. This service may be terminated by the Utility upon failure of the customer to pay the charges when due or to comply with any of the terms and conditions of this schedule. Subject to the provisions of this paragraph and further subject to the minimum service period of six months, this lease will continue to renew automatically for additional six month service periods. Service can be terminated by either party upon at least thirty (30) days written notice prior to the expiration of the current six month service period.

f. The Utility shall refuse to provide service for any applicant, and it shall discontinue service to a customer, whenever it has reasonable cause to believe that the use made or to be made of the service, or the furnishing of service to the applicant or customer is prohibited under any law, ordinance, regulation, or other legal requirement, or that the service is being or is to be used as an instrumentality, directly or indirectly, to violate or to aid and abet the violation of the law. A written notice to the Utility from any official charged with the enforcement of the law stating that such service is being used or will be used as an Instrumentality to violate or to aid and abet the violation of the law is sufficient to constitute such reasonable cause. (T)

g. The customer shall not: (T)

(1) sell, reproduce, reprint or publish the directory in whole or in part or permit such to be done;

(2) lease, sublet or lend the directory; or

(3) permit the use of the directory by another person or persons except for the purpose of the customer's business.

h. The customer shall indemnify the Utility and hold it free and harmless of and from any and all claims, demands or damages that shall or may arise from use of the directory. (T)

i. The customer agrees to pay the total rate per month, each month in advance. The Utility may require six months payment in advance if the customer (T)

(1) owes for previous street address telephone directory service

(2) does not subscribe to telephone service with this Utility.

4. Telephone Directories Outside the Local, ZUM and EAS Areas.

a. As of October 11, 2007, Telephone Directories for areas outside the Local, ZUM and EAS Areas have been withdrawn. These Directories are provided by Idearc Media Corp., the official publisher of Verizon print directories. Additional local directories and directories outside the local calling area may be obtained by contacting Idearc. For rates, terms and conditions, call 1-800-888-8448, or visit www.directorystore.com. (C) (C)

b. The customer shall not:

- sell, reproduce, reprint or publish the directory in whole or in part or permit such to be done;
- lease, sublet, or lend the directory;
- permit the use of the directory by another person or persons except for the purpose of the customer's business.

c. The customer shall indemnify the Utility and hold it free and harmless of any and all claims, demands or damages that shall or may arise from use of the directory.

5. Directory Nonlisted Number Service is an arrangement whereby a subscriber's telephone number is omitted from the telephone directory but is listed with Directory Assistance.

When Directory Nonlisted Number Service is furnished, the customer will hold the Utility harmless from any damages which might arise and absolve the Utility from any responsibility for the failure of the customer to receive calls because of the nonlisted arrangement.

Subscribers to Directory Nonlisted Number Service will be required to maintain such service until the first issuance of a directory in which a requested change may be published, or until telephone service is discontinued. Billing for such services will be discontinued with the last regular bill dated before the issuance of the directory in which the change is made.
