

LOCAL EXCHANGE SERVICE

USAGE SENSITIVE SERVICE

A. GENERAL

Usage Sensitive Service (USS) provides unrestricted calling within a local calling area for which the customer is charged a monthly network access line rate in addition to usage rates. In exchanges where Usage Sensitive Service is offered, the service is optional for residence one-party customers on either a measured or metered usage basis, and non-optional for business one-party customers on a measured usage basis only.

Business customers are charged a monthly network access line rate in addition to usage rates based on the number of messages, the duration of the messages, the distance to the called party, and the time of day in which the messages are originated. Business customers may purchase optional measured service usage blocks of time in lieu of paying for calls based on the number of messages, duration of messages, the distance called and the time of day. These blocks of time are applicable to customer dialed calls made within the local exchange area and the designated extended area for that exchange.

Residence customers may choose between two optional arrangements:

1. Measured Service - the customers are charged a monthly network access line rate in addition to usage rates based on the number of messages, the duration of the messages, the distance to the called party, and the time of day in which the messages are originated.

The rules and rates for the measured service option are found in D following.

2. Metered Service - the customers are charged a monthly network access line rate in addition to usage rates based on the number of messages and the time of day in which the messages are originated.

The rules and rates for the metered service option are found in E following.

B. DEFINITIONS

1. The term "local exchange area" denotes that calling area within which connections are permitted without application of a zone usage rate or message toll charge. Such areas may consist of one, or more than one central office areas.
2. The term "access line" denotes the transmission path between a demarcation point on the customer's premises and the point in the Company central office where access to the switched network is obtained for the purpose of completing calls.
3. The term "distance" denotes the airline distance between the originating central office of a call and the terminating central office of that call utilizing exchange rate center vertical and horizontal coordinates.
4. The term "message connection" denotes the process of establishing the communicating path between the calling and called party.
5. "Minutes of Use" denotes the time interval between the time the called party answers and subsequent disconnection. Charges are based on minutes and parts thereof.
6. "Time-of-occurrence" denotes the time-of-day and day-of-week at which a call occurs.
7. The term "extended area" denotes a certain designated calling area outside the customer's local exchange area within which customer connections are permitted at applicable extended area usage rates.

These rates, terms and conditions are effective June 30, 2002.

C. REGULATIONS (Cont'd)

2. Availability of Service (Cont'd)

- b. Usage Sensitive Service will be provided to all business one-party customers, i.e., those customers served by Type A trunks, Type B trunks, Pay Telephone Line Service and business one-party service on a non-optional measured basis.
- c. Usage Sensitive Service will be provided to residence one-party customers, on an optional basis, either measured or metered.

(C)

- 3. Calls originated or completed without operator assistance must be billed to the originating station. Calls originated or completed with operator assistance may be billed collect¹, to a third number¹, credit card, or to the originating station.
- 4. Customers with Usage Sensitive Service may not temporarily suspend that service.
- 5. Each call to a telephone number within the customer's local calling area is charged on a usage basis. Usage charges apply on customer dialed, station-to-station local calls and are charged to the calling party. Usage charges also apply to local calls that are placed with operator assistance and are billed either collect¹, to a third number¹, credit card, or to the originating station.

- # 1. In the Exchange Areas designated above, Business flat rated service (except for CentraNet, CustoPAK and Pay Telephone Line Service) is only available to existing business customers who continue such service at their present locations through December 31, 2003. All existing CentraNet, CustoPAK and Pay Telephone Line Service will change to Usage Sensitive Service (USS) with the effective date reflected on this sheet (June 30, 2002).
- 2. As of the effective date of this tariff change, all new or additional Business local service must be ordered as Usage Sensitive Service (USS). Grandfathered Business customers who have both flat rated and USS service will receive a separate monthly bill for each service.

¹ Effective August 8, 2016, Collect and Third Number will be discontinued and will not be accepted as a billing arrangement for calls.

These rates, terms and conditions are effective June 30, 2002.

D. USAGE SENSITIVE MEASURED SERVICE

1. USS Measured Service will be provided to all business one-party customers on a non-optional basis, and to residence one-party customers on an optional basis.

2. Extended Area Designation

- a. Extended area designation determination.

To determine distances between the calling party and the called party on USS calls, the following methodology will be used:

- (1) When the calling or called party is served by the same central office exchange, no distance measurement is made.
 - (2) When the calling and called party are served by different exchanges, the distance will be measured from the exchange toll rate center to exchange toll rate center.

The extended area designations are determined as follows:

Where the Airline Distance Between the Customer's Service Exchange and the Called Exchange is	Extended Area Designation
1-10 miles	1
10.01-16 miles	2
16.01-22 miles	3
