ACCESS SERVICE

1. Application of Tariff

1.1 This tariff contains regulations, rates and charges applicable to the provision of Carrier Common Line, End User Access, Lifeline Assistance, Universal Service Fund, Switched Access, Special Access Services, Expanded Interconnection Service, that in each case are subject to Section 203 of the Communications Act (the "Act"), and other miscellaneous services, hereinafter referred to collectively as service(s), provided by the Issuing Carriers of this tariff, hereinafter referred to (individually and collectively, as applicable) as the Telephone Company, to customers. (C)

The Special Access Service regulations, rates and charges located in this tariff are for Non-Competitive End User Circuit Terminations (and associated optional features and functions).[1] In some instances, this tariff refers to Special Access Services in general terms, including references to competitive Special Access Services such as transport and circuit terminations other than Non-Competitive End User Circuit Terminations that are provided outside this tariff. Any references to Special Access Services provided outside of this tariff are solely to assist in understanding the manner in which the Telephone Company offers such services in connection with tariffed services and shall not be construed to mean that such services are offered under this tariff or are subject to Section 203 of the Act. (N)

1.2 The provision of such services by the Telephone Company as set forth in this tariff does not constitute a joint undertaking with the customer for the furnishing of any service.

1.3 References in this tariff to a Special Construction Tariff refers to the following tariff as effective in its respective territories:

TARIFF F.C.C. NO. 21	for Verizon North LLC and Verizon South Inc.

[1] Special Access Services not subject to Section 203 of the Act, including services detariffed in compliance with FCC Orders 17-43 (released April 28, 2017) and 19-66 (released July 12, 2019), are provided outside this tariff and are governed by agreements, contracts and other documents including the Business Data Services Product Guide and associated terms that are available at verizon.com/productguides or other designated location.
