JOINT USE OF SERVICE

A. GENERAL REGULATIONS

1. DEFINITION OF "JOINT USER"

The individual, partnership, or corporation sharing a customer's Service is known as a "joint user".

2. CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH FURNISHED

a. EXCHANGE SERVICES

Joint use of service is a shared service arrangement which allows the business exchange individual dial tone lines and unlimited usage packages of a customer and services associated therewith, to be used by one or more other persons (including corporations), and their employees, designated by the customer who are not otherwise permitted use of the customer's service by this Tariff.

Application for joint use of service, and for any additional service associated therewith, must be executed by the customer, and the Customer is responsible for the payment of all charges therefor.

A joint user of a customer's service may obtain service directly from the Telephone Company in addition to or in lieu of the joint service, and any agreement to the contrary is void and of no effect as to the Telephone Company.

Joint use of service includes one listing in an alphabetical (white pages) telephone directory for each joint user, but does not include any listing in a classified telephone directory. A joint user may have one or more additional directory listings, at the rates specified elsewhere in this Tariff for additional listings of customers. The directory listing regulations elsewhere in this Tariff shall apply to the main and any additional listing for a joint user.

Joint use of service is not furnished in connection with mobile telephone service.

b. PRIVATE LINE SERVICES

Joint use of service permits private line services of a customer to be used by one or more other persons (including corporations), and their employees, designated by the customer who are not otherwise permitted use of the customer's service by this Tariff.
