SECTION 10 - OBSOLETE OR DISCONTINUED OFFERINGS

10.1 INTEGRATED SERVICES DIGITAL NETWORK – ISDN

10.1.1 Description

Integrated Services Digital Network (ISDN) is a digital architecture that provides an integrated voice/data capability to the customer premises facility utilizing the public switched network. ISDN distributes voice and data over a T-1 trunk facility in a format known as Primary Rate Interface (PRI). This serving arrangement conforms to internationally developed, published, and recognized standards generated by the International Telecommunication Union (formerly CCITT).

10.1.2 Definitions

B (Bearer) Channel - A B-channel carries circuit-switched voice and/or data communications at speeds up to 64 kbit/s, from the customer's premises, over the loop facility, to the central office.

D (Delta) Channel - D-channel carries signaling information at speeds up to 64 kbit/s for PRI, from the customer's premises to the central office. The D-channel has only signaling functionality; it does not have voice capability.

Primary Rate Interface (PRI) - PRI has a capacity of 1.544 megabits per second (Mbit/s) and has multiple channels: 23 B-channels, and 1 D-channel, and is also known as 23 B+D access. The B-channels can carry voice and circuit-switched data, while the D-channel handles signaling information. PRI also comes in a 24 B channel configuration if a D channel already exists in the PRI trunk group.

Public Data Network - A public network for the transmission of data, particularly a network compatible with X.25 protocol.

- (a) The customer or customer's authorized agent is responsible for the procurement of associated customer premise equipment (CPE) and will ensure compatibility with the ISDN digital switch serving the customer.
- (b) Should any change in inside wiring (including riser cable) not owned by the Company, or CPE, require the Company to redesign ISDN service, the customer shall reimburse the Company for all costs incurred by the Company in making such a change. Should ISDN service fail due to inside wiring (including riser cable) not owned by the Company, CPE, or power failure, the responsibility for failure shall be solely that of the customer and the Company shall have no liability of any kind.
- (c) The customer is responsible for placement, installation, operation, maintenance, repair and replacement of all inside wire (including riser cable), not owned by the Company, and CPE that the customer uses in connection with this service. Premises wiring and CPE must be compatible with the Company's provision of ISDN Service.
- (d) If an ISDN service interruption, disconnection, error, performance failure, or some out-of-service condition occurs which is caused by the failure of any component furnished by the Company under this price list, the Company may apply a credit as specified herein.
- (e) The customer must give 30 days written notice of termination. Early termination charges will apply if a service is terminated in whole or in part by the customer, or is terminated for cause by the Company.

(f) If a customer terminated service prior to the installation date, customer shall pay termination charges including but not limited to: all engineering, planning, preparation, materials, supplies, placement, facilities, acquisition, transportation, installation, construction, and labor costs and charges incurred by the Company.

1. If a customer terminates service after the date of installation but prior to the expiration of the contract, termination charges will apply as specified in the Cancellation of Service set forth in Section 2.8.
2. The Company and any customer who agrees to accept service will enter into a written agreement which terms and conditions will be consistent with this Price List.

(g) Order Cancellation

1. When an application or request for service is canceled in whole or in part before service is established, the customer is required, on demand, to reimburse the Company for all expenses incurred in connection with the application for service and the installation of the required equipment and facilities before notice of cancellation is received. Such charges are not to exceed the installation, construction and termination charges otherwise applicable if the service had been established.
2. When an application for service requiring a special assembly of equipment, is canceled, in whole or in part before the service is established, the customer is required, on demand, to reimburse the Company for all expenses which were incurred in connection with the application for and/or installation of service including but not limited to engineering costs, and which were incurred prior to notice of cancellation. This reimbursement practice will apply to special assembly all requests with the exception of inquiries.

SECTION 10 - OBSOLETE OR DISCONTINUED OFFERINGS, (CONT'D.)10.1 INTEGRATED SERVICES DIGITAL NETWORK – ISDN, (Cont'd.)*10.1.4 Availability

The furnishing of ISDN service under this price list is subject to the availability on a continuing basis of all facilities necessary to provide the service. Services will be provided using the Company's fiber optic and other facilities as well as facilities the Company may obtain from other carriers.

10.1.5 Protection of the Network

- a. The Company has the right and option to check the output of any equipment used in the transmission of signals, to or from the customer premises, for this service. This includes Company-provided facilities or other companies' facilities used in connection with the provision of ISDN capabilities, such as customer-provided equipment.
- b. The Company will notify the customer of any deviation from the authorized transmissions or specifications established in provision of the service.
- c. Upon notification by the Company that unauthorized transmissions are present due to customer equipment or facilities, the customer or customer's authorized agent will correct the situation on an expeditious basis or service will be disconnected by the Company to protect the network. The Company shall not be liable for and disclaims liability for losses which might be incurred as a result of disconnecting the service and disclaims any and all implied warranties, including, without limitation, warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose. With respect to such equipment or service, the Company shall not be liable for any incidental or consequential damages, including but not limited to loss, damage, or expense directly or indirectly arising from the customer's use of or inability to use this service or equipment, either separately or in combination with other services or equipment.

- a. It is the customer's responsibility to indemnify and hold harmless the Company against any and all claims, losses, liabilities, damages and lawsuits brought by any nonparty and arising, in whole or in part, out of customer's material breach of this Price List. Indemnification shall include, but is not limited to, costs and attorney's fees.
- b. Customer is responsible for the content of communications. Where customer's negligence or wrongful actions in using inside wire not owned by the Company, CPE or customer's communications result in any claim or legal action brought by nonparty, customer shall indemnify and hold the Company harmless.

10.1.7 Primary Rate Interface (PRI) Service Offering10.1.7.1 Description

The basic Primary Rate Interface service structure consists of 23 B-channels and a D-channel or 24 B channels, for a total transmission rate of 1.544 Mbit/s, which is equivalent to a T1 facility. Each 64 kbit/s B-channel carries user information such as voice calls, circuit-switched data, or video. The D-channel is a 64 kbit/s channel that is used to carry the control or signaling information.

10.1.7.2 Data-Only PRI

A Circuit-Switched Data Connection is a central office translation that provisions 23 or 24 B-channels on a PRI T1 facility. All B-channels are dedicated with 2-way operation and have access to the exchange network. Incoming calls are restricted to circuit-switched data or video.

SECTION 10 - OBSOLETE OR DISCONTINUED OFFERINGS, (CONT'D.)10.9 Centrex*10.9.1 Description

Centrex is a switched business communications service furnishing connections between a central office based switching system and a network interface which serves end user Customer stations. A group of stations lines is translated for an individual common block and is provided common access to a group of system features. Optional features are also available.

10.9.2 Terms and Conditions

- a. The customer or customer's authorized agent is responsible for the procurement of associated customer premise equipment (CPE) and will ensure compatibility with the Centrex digital switch serving the customer.
- b. Should any change in inside wiring (including riser cable) not owned by the Company, or CPE, require the Company to redesign Centrex service, the customer shall reimburse the Company for all costs incurred by the Company in making such a change. Should Centrex service fail due to inside wiring (including riser cable) not owned by the Company, CPE, or power failure, the responsibility for failure shall be solely that of the customer and the Company shall have no liability of any kind.
- c. The customer is responsible for placement, installation, operation, maintenance, repair and replacement of all inside wire (including riser cable), not owned by the Company, and CPE that the customer uses in connection with this service. Premises wiring and CPE must be compatible with the Company's provision of Centrex Service.
- d. If a Centrex service interruption, disconnection, error, performance failure, or some out-of-service condition occurs which is caused by the failure of any component furnished by the Company under this price list, the Company may apply a credit as specified herein.
- e. The customer must give 30 days written notice of termination. Early termination charges will apply if a service is terminated in whole or in part by the customer, or is terminated for cause by the Company.

SECTION 10 - OBSOLETE OR DISCONTINUED OFFERINGS, (CONT'D.)10.9 Centrex, (Cont'd.)*10.9.2 Terms and Conditions (cont'd)

- f. If a customer terminates service prior to the installation date, customer shall pay termination charges including but not limited to: all engineering, planning, preparation, materials, supplies, placement, facilities, acquisition, transportation, installation, construction, and labor costs and charges incurred by the Company.

 - 1. If a customer terminates service after the date of installation but prior to the expiration of the contract, termination charges will apply as specified in the Cancellation of Service set forth in Section 2.8.
 - 2. The Company and any customer who agrees to accept service will enter into a written agreement which terms and conditions will be consistent with this Price List.
- g. Order Cancellation

 - 1. When an application or request for service is canceled in whole or in part before service is established, the customer is required, on demand, to reimburse the Company for all expenses incurred in connection with the application for service and the installation of the required equipment and facilities before notice of cancellation is received. Such charges are not to exceed the installation, construction and termination charges otherwise applicable if the service had been established.
 - 2. When an application for service requiring a special assembly of equipment, is canceled, in whole or in part before the service is established, the customer is required, on demand, to reimburse the Company for all expenses which were incurred in connection with the application for and/or installation of service including but not limited to engineering costs, and which were incurred prior to notice of cancellation. This reimbursement practice will apply to all special assembly requests with the exception of inquiries.

UTAH LOCAL EXCHANGE SERVICES PRICE LIST

SECTION 10 - OBSOLETE OR DISCONTINUED OFFERINGS, (CONT'D.)10.16 XO Premium Integrated Access

XO Premium Integrated Access Service is a bundled service offering that requires the Customer to purchase, at the same customer location, local exchange service, message toll service and Internet services from the Company. The standard configuration involves having a single DS-1 to the Customer's premises. Service can also be provided via ISDN PRI. When ordering service via DS-1, the Customer must purchase a minimum of six (6) local exchange lines or trunks and utilize a total of at least fourteen (14) voice & data channels. The Customer must also enter into a one (1), two (2) or three (3) year service order agreement. Usage for all services is not included in the following rates. The Non-Recurring and Monthly Recurring charges are specified below. MRC's listed below are for one (1) year term contracts, two and three year contracts receive an additional 5% and 10% discount, respectively.

10.16.1 Standard & Optional Features

XO Premium Integrated Access Service Customers using Basic Business Lines will receive Touchtone as a Standard feature and may request the following optional features at no additional charge: Call Forward Variable, Call Forward Busy, Call Forward No Answer, Speed Calling, Call Waiting, and 3 Way Calling.

10.16.1 Non-Recurring Charges

For initial installation of XO Premium Integrated Access Service over a single DS-1 or ISDN PRI, Customers will pay a non-recurring installation charge specified below. Installation charges for those Customers that purchase more than a DS-1 worth of capacity will be done on an Individual Case Basis (ICB). If a customer chooses to add additional local exchange lines or channels after installation of the initial service, the Company's regular non-recurring installation charges for local exchange service, as specified in 3.1 will apply. An additional Service Order charge will apply for Features added subsequent to the initial service order.

SECTION 10 - OBSOLETE OR DISCONTINUED OFFERINGS, (CONT'D.)

10.17 Message Toll Service - As of November 5, 2005, this product will only be available to current customers at their current locations. The Company's Message Toll Service, offered pursuant to the Company's Message Toll Service Price list, provides a Customer with the ability to originate a call between points within different local calling areas within the State of Utah. The points between which service is furnished on a local basis are indicated by the governing rates for exchange service as indicated in Section 3.1 of this price list.

10.18 XO Gold and Platinum Services - As of November 5, 2005, this product will only be available to current customers at their current locations.

XO's Gold and Platinum Services provide XO's customers with direct dialed communications services which are available for use by its customers on a twenty-four (24) hours a day seven days a week basis. Customers may originate Gold and Platinum services from locations served by the Company, and may terminate such calls to any location within the United States. Gold and Platinum Services include 1+ Outbound and Inbound Service, Operator Assistance, Toll Free Service and Directory Assistance Services as set forth below. Customers may not substitute other services or rates for those set forth in this section or other sections of this tariff that are associated with the Gold and Platinum Service, excepted as explicitly permitted by the terms and conditions of the Gold and Platinum Service.

For the purposes of this Section 3.2.1, timing of messages will be determined by the following method.

- (a) Chargeable time begins when connection is established between the calling station and the called station.
- (b) Chargeable time ends when the calling station "hangs up" thereby releasing the network connection. If the called station "hangs up" but the calling station does not, chargeable time ends when the network connection is released by automatic timing equipment in the telephone network.

10.18.1 Usage Rates

Usage Rates for Gold and Platinum Services are billed in (6) second increments with an initial billing period of six seconds. The duration of each call for bill purposes will be rounded off to the nearest highest increment. Fractional cents will be rounded to the next highest cent. The following rates apply to intrastate InterLATA and IntraLATA calls.

SECTION 10 - OBSOLETE OR DISCONTINUED OFFERINGS, (CONT'D.)10.22 Multiple Service Discount #2- As of November 5, 2005, this product will only be available to current customers at their current locations.

XO Multiple Service #2 is available to current or new XO Business Customers meeting the criteria listed below. Customer will receive a 15% discount off the combined total amount of the Monthly Recurring and Usage charges for their XO local exchange, local calling features, IntraLATA, InterLATA, 800 toll service, Shared Web Hosting and DSL or Dedicated Internet Access Service. Sales, use, gross receipts, excise, access or other local, state and federal taxes, charges, user fees, or surcharges are not included. Service is subject to the availability of facilities and offered only where technically feasible. This 15% discount is applied in addition to any term discount offered on the individual service components listed below. The following are not eligible with the Multiple Service Discount: XOption Offering; Integrated Access Offering; XO Dedicated Long Distance; other promotions; Individual Case Basis (ICB) contracts, or any off tariff pricing. To be eligible, Customers must meet the following criteria:

1. Customers must subscribe to XO local exchange and long distance services ("Voice Service"). The Local Exchange Voice service requirement is a minimum of 48 lines or trunks (or 2 T-1 equivalents) but no more than 144 lines or trunks (or 6 T-1 equivalents);
2. Customers must subscribe to XO DSL or Dedicated Internet Access service, and XO Shared Web Hosting service ("Data Service"). Does not apply to Dedicated Web Hosting;
3. New XO Customers must commit to a term of service for the XO Voice Service and Data Service for minimum one (1) year term commitment. Existing XO Customers must commit to a term of service for Data Service that is equal to or greater than the amount of time remaining in Customer's term commitment for the XO Voice Service listed in 1 above, but in no case shall the commitment be less than one (1) year;
4. Current Customers' XO account must be current as of the date of Installation and no outstanding balance past due; and

If, for any reason, Customer's service is terminated prior to the end of Customer's term commitment, the Customer will be liable for all discounted amounts provided under this Service Discount Plan.
