TEL-LIFE SERVICE

A. GENERAL

Tel-Life Service is an offering designed to help qualified customers pay for their Local Exchange Service. Such qualified customers are charged a reduced rate for their local telephone service.

B. REGULATIONS

1. Tel-Life Service is available to qualified customers and is provided via a residence individual message rate dial tone line.
2. Tel-Life Service is Local Exchange Service and, as such, is subject to the regulations governing Local Exchange Service in Section 2 of this tariff. The rates specified herein for Tel-Life Service apply in lieu of the rates for Local Exchange Service in Section 2 preceding, except as may otherwise be specified following.
3. In order to qualify for Tel-Life Service, a customer must be certified by the Maryland Department of Human Resources and/or the Federal Communications Commission or its designee as meeting the qualifications for Tel-Life Service in accordance with 47 CFR 54.400, 54.409, and 54.410, and Section 8-201 of the Maryland Public Utilities Article. (C)
4. Tel-Life Service will continue to be provided to a customer only so long as such customer meets the requirements as specified in section B.3 above. (C)
The continuation of qualification for Tel-Life Service must be recertified every 12 months following the establishment of the Tel-Life Service. Without such recertification, the customer's Tel-Life Service will be discontinued.
5. When the Telephone Company receives notice from the Maryland Department of Human Resources, the Federal Communications Commission or its designee, or the customer, that the customer is no longer receiving benefits as specified in section B.3 above, the Telephone Company will then notify the customer that the Tel-Life Service will be disconnected or changed to another class of residence service. (C) (T)
6. A customer to Tel-Life Service may not subscribe to any other Local Exchange Service on the same premises. In addition, a Tel-Life customer may not subscribe to any additional telephone services including foreign central office, foreign exchange and foreign zone services. (T)
