4.1.1 General
A.	The Telephone Company bills only the reseller who is considered the customer of record and is at all times responsible for payment of the full amount of all charges incurred.
1.	The reseller as customer of record is responsible for any allocation of end user charges for resold or shared service.
2.	Regardless of whether the reseller's end user is still using service, the reseller is responsible for charges incurred by the end user or reseller for all services on a line until the reseller submits an order to discontinue such service.
B.	The Telephone Company will not be required to seek payment from the reseller's end users prior to terminating the reseller's service or pursuing any other remedies for nonpayment by the reseller. The reseller will thus be the obligor of the Telephone Company, and not the guarantor or surety for any of the obligations of the reseller's end users.

4.1.2 Billing Convention
A.	The monthly bill rendered to a reseller for accumulated usage and non-usage services includes all charges incurred during a billing period which begins as follows.
1.	From the date service was established up to and including the bill date, and
2.	From each billing period from the day after the bill date to the next successive bill date, or to the date of the termination of the service, whichever comes first.
B.	In addition to the current month's charges, the reseller's monthly bill may also include previously unbilled charges or other billing adjustments.

4.1.3 Late Payment Penalty
A.	If any portion of the payment is received by the Telephone Company after the payment date (refer to Section 4.1.4), or if any portion of the payment is received by the Telephone Company in funds which are not immediately available to the Telephone Company, then a late payment penalty shall be due to the Telephone Company.
B.	The late payment penalty shall be the portion of the payment not received by the payment date times a late factor. The late factor shall be the lesser of the following.
1.	The highest interest rate (in decimal value) which may be levied by law for commercial transactions for the number of days from the payment date to and including the date that the reseller actually makes the payment to the Telephone Company, or
2.	0.0005 per day for the number of days from the payment date to and including the date that the reseller actually makes the payment to the Telephone Company.

2.	If such payment date falls on a Sunday or on a legal holiday which is observed on a Monday, the payment date shall be the first non holiday day following such Sunday or legal holiday.
3.	If such payment date falls on a Saturday or on a legal holiday which is observed on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday or Friday, the payment date shall be the last non holiday day preceding such Saturday or legal holiday.

4.1.5 Medium of Payment
A.	Bills are payable in immediately available funds.
1.	Immediately Available Funds denotes a corporate or personal check drawn on a bank account and funds which are available for use by the receiving party on the same day on which they are received and include US Federal Reserve bank wire transfers, US Federal Reserve notes (paper cash), US coins and US Postal Money Orders.

4.1.6 Customer Deposits
A.	The Telephone Company will, in order to safeguard its interests, require a reseller which has a proven history of late payments or whose parent or holding company which has a proven history of late payments, to the Telephone Company or does not have established credit (except for a reseller which is a successor of a company which has established credit and the successor has no history of late payments to the Telephone Company), to make a deposit prior to or at any time after the provision of a service to the reseller to be held by the Telephone Company as a guarantee of the payment of rates and charges.
B.	Such deposit may not exceed the actual or estimated rates and charges for the service for a two month period.
C.	The fact that a deposit has been made in no way relieves the reseller from complying with the Telephone Company's regulations as to the prompt payment of bills.
D.	At such time as the provision of the service to the reseller is terminated, the amount of the deposit will be credited to the reseller's account and any credit balance which may remain will be refunded.

F.	In the case of a cash deposit the reseller will receive interest as set forth in Section 4.1.3 for the period the deposit is held by the Telephone Company. Interest will accrue for the number of days from the date the reseller deposit is received by the Telephone Company to and including the date such deposit is credited to the reseller's account or the date the deposit is refunded by the Telephone Company.
G.	Should a deposit be credited to the reseller account, as indicated above, no interest will accrue on the deposit from the date such deposit is credited to the reseller's account.

B.	The date of resolution shall be the date on which the Telephone Company completes its investigation of the dispute, notifies the reseller of the disposition and, if the billing dispute is resolved in favor of the reseller, applies credit for the correct disputed amount, the disputed amount penalty and/or late payment penalty as appropriate.
C.	If a billing dispute is resolved in favor of the Telephone Company, any payments withheld pending resolution of the dispute shall be subject to the late payment penalty (refer to Section 4.1.3). Further, the reseller will not receive credit for the disputed amount of the disputed amount penalty.
D.	If a reseller disputes a bill within three months of the payment date and pays the total billed amount on or before the payment date and the billing dispute is resolved in favor of the reseller, the reseller will receive a credit for a disputed amount penalty from the Telephone Company for the period starting with the date of payment and ending on the date of resolution.
