5. Resale and Sharing
5.1 Description

5.1.0 General Restrictions on Availability		(N)
A.	Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Section 5, the availability under this Tariff of services purchased for resale is subject to the limitations set forth in paragraph 1.1.0.	(N) (N)

5.1.1 General
A.	Resale is the sale to another person of telecommunications services purchased from the Telephone Company. A customer purchases for resale when such customer purchases a service for the purpose of reselling it to another (rather than the purpose of using the service itself).
1.	A purchasing agent who orders services for its principal, and who does not itself agree to assume the obligations of a reseller under this tariff, is not purchasing for resale within the meaning of this tariff.
2.	The purchase of telecommunications services or unbundled network elements for the purpose of provisioning a different service (such as the purchase of the Telephone Company's switched carrier access service for the purpose of provisioning an interexchange carrier's toll service) is not resale within the meaning of this tariff.
3.	A person purchasing a service for shared use by that person and others is purchasing for resale within the meaning of this tariff if such person agrees to assume all the obligations of a reseller under this tariff.
B.	Where a reseller purchases Telephone Company exchange service from the Telephone Company and resells it to an end user, such reseller's end user will be able to access any and all services that a Telephone Company end user would be able to access on a Telephone Company exchange service line. Such services to the extent provided by the Telephone Company will be deemed to have been sold to the reseller by the Telephone Company as they are utilized by the reseller's end user, and the reseller will be responsible to the Telephone Company for payment of such services.

5.1.2 Services Offered for Resale
A.	The services offered under this tariff are those that are offered by the Telephone Company to end users under the terms and conditions of the MA Product Guide, in accordance with the following limitations.
1.	Services in the MA Product Guide that have been designated as no longer available for new installations or no longer offered are not offered for resale except that such services are only available for resale to the embedded base of end users who were permitted to retain such service(s) in accordance with the terms and conditions contained in the MA Product Guide.
2.	Promotional programs (e.g., discounts, waivers, credits, certificates, premiums, discounted product trials or other inducements) made available to end users for a period of 90 days or less, and that are offered in order to promote the sale of a service are offered for resale; however they are not subject to the resale discount specified in Section 5.3.

5.1.2 Services Offered for Resale
A. (Cont'd)
3.	Promotional programs (e.g., discounts, waivers, credits, certificates, premiums, discounted product trials or other inducements) made available to end users for a period greater than 90 days, and that are offered in order to promote the sale of a service are offered for resale. Upon request of the reseller, the Telephone Company shall determine wholesale rates that reflect the Telephone Company's avoided costs associated with the promotional program.
B.	Services that are sold to Telephone Company end users only in conjunction with the purchase of basic dial tone service will be available for resale only in conjunction with the resale of basic dial tone service and not on a stand alone basis.
C.	Lifeline — The resale of Lifeline is discontinued effective February 9, 2016.
D.	Linkup America —The resale of Linkup America is discontinued effective February 9, 2016.
E.	Blocking — Resellers are allowed to purchase blocking services to restrict end user access to particular capabilities to the extent such services are available under and on the same terms and conditions as set forth in the MA Product Guide.

5.2 Regulations

5.2.1 Restrictions
A.	Class of Customer— This is a restriction contained in the MA Product Guide that limits the availability of a service to a particular type of customer, such as a business customer, a residence customer, carrier, end user, etc. 1. Where a resold service is subject to such restriction the reseller may not resell such service to any customer not in the relevant class. The reseller may purchase the service for resale to a customer in the relevant class whether or not the reseller itself is within the class. a. Business services may be resold to residence end users as long as the end user is served by a business exchange line and as long as all other services provided on that line are also under the business class and charged for at the appropriate business service rates and charges. 2. Where a reseller resells a service to another person, and such other person is itself a reseller rather than an end user, the reseller purchasing from the Telephone Company must require its end users (by tariff or by contract), to conform to any applicable class of service restrictions for end users and all other requirements of resellers under this tariff.
B.	The reseller is not allowed to offer resold service to its customers under any of the Telephone Company trademarks, service marks, registered trademark, registered service mark or brand-names, or use the logos of the Telephone Company or the Telephone Company's affiliates without the expressed written authorization of the Telephone Company. In addition, a reseller is not allowed to use the Bell Atlantic name, logos, trademarks, service marks, registered trademarks, registered service marks and brand-names in its marketing materials and in marketing communications (e.g., radio advertisement).
C.	Aggregation of traffic by a reseller is subject to the terms and conditions contained in the MA Product Guide applicable to the underlying telecommunications service(s) being resold.

5.3 Application of Rates and Charges

5.3.1 Underlying Services
A.	Discount — The rates and charges that apply for the underlying services that are sold to a reseller in accordance with the terms and conditions described in this tariff, are specified in the MA Product Guide. The Telephone Company will discount the MA Product Guide rates and charges by applying the resale discounts specified in Section 10 to the applicable MA Product Guide rates and charges for resold services offered under this tariff in accordance with Section 5.1.2.
1.	PAL and PASL services are not available for resale and are not eligible for resale discounts.
2.	Lifeline and Linkup America programs are not available for resale and are not eligible for resale discounts.
